Our mission

We are all interconnected. That's why we work all over the world, wherever and whenever necessary, to support people with disabilities and vulnerable populations.

Our team is united behind the conviction that every human being deserves safety and dignity. We act and speak out to meet people with disabilities and vulnerable populations' essential needs, improve their living conditions and promote respect for their fundamental rights.

We are Humanity & Inclusion (HI), formerly Handicap International, an independent and impartial international solidarity organization working in situations of poverty, exclusion, conflict and disaster.

Protection of civilians

Humanity & Inclusion Canada and its partners, the Canadian Landmine Foundation and Mines Action Canada, are staging a unique event in Ottawa dedicated to the protection of civilians in armed conflict.

On this occasion, we will be inaugurating the Monument of the Unknown Civilian, an ephemeral symbol inspired by the Tomb of the Unknown Soldier, to denounce the ravages of contemporary conflicts in which civilians are the first victims. Every 24 minutes, a civilian is injured or killed by a bomb or explosive device targeting an urban area.

Aleppo and Raqqa (Syria), Mosul (Iraq), Sana'a (Yemen)... Over the past decade, these martyred cities have come to symbolize contempt for civilian life. Intensive bombardments, fighting in the heart of the city, the images of destruction follow one another under the passive gaze of the world's governments.

Bombing civilians is not war,
it's a crime!
