

For Immediate Release

Press Release: Humanity & Inclusion Canada announces its Council of Governors

Montreal, June 25, 2024 – Humanity & Inclusion (HI) Canada is pleased to announce its Council of Governors, which purpose is to support the development of HI's philanthropic activities, and to raise brand awareness across Canada.

"It is with great pride that I salute this initiative, which unites Canadians from all walks of life, with remarkable backgrounds and a strong commitment to their communities, around a common cause. These high-profile personalities will make a significant contribution to our organization's growth and reputation, so that we can continue to work tirelessly alongside people with disabilities and vulnerable populations around the world", Anne Delorme, Executive Director of Humanity & Inclusion Canada.

The Council brings together exceptional individuals from diverse political, corporate and artistic backgrounds, with a keen interest in HI's mission and a solid network of influence across the country. They will bring their recognized expertise and leadership to the organization, helping to engage fellow citizens in supporting the inclusion of people with disabilities and ensuring that they are never left behind.

Members of the Council :

- Dominique Blain, Montreal contemporary artist and recipient of numerous awards, including the Governor General's Award in Visual and Media Arts in 2023.
- Janet Brown, well-known Alberta pollster, political commentator and speaker.
- Martin Imbleau, a lawyer by training with a passion for business development, now President and CEO of VIA HFR - VIA TGF Inc.
- Michelle Mckenna, board member of Vecova and Renfrew Educational Services, disability support organizations based in Calgary, Alberta.

To find out more about the Council of Governors and become a member, visit www.hi-canada.org/en/council-of-governors.

About Humanity & Inclusion

Humanity & Inclusion is an independent and impartial international aid organization that has been working for over 40 years to ensure that people with disabilities and vulnerable populations are never left behind. The organization is present in nearly 60 countries, where it runs projects focused on the inclusive development of people with disabilities, provides humanitarian aid to populations in crisis, and helps reduce armed violence through awareness-raising, mine clearance and explosive ordnance education. Recognized for its advocacy, HI is a founding member of the International Campaign to Ban Landmines and the International Explosive Ordnance Network, co-recipient of the Nobel Peace Prize in 1997 and winner of the Conrad N. Hilton Award in 2011. In Canada, HI has been based in Montreal and Ottawa for 20 years.

Media contact:

Fatou Thiam – Head of Communications, Humanity & Inclusion Canada, f.thiam@hi.org , 514 229-0671.